CAMP GENESIS CAMPER/PARENT AGREEMENT

(Including acknowledgment and assumption of risks and agreements of release and indemnity)

Please read this document carefully. It informs you of certain activities of Camp Genesis and their risks and affects your legal rights in the event of an injury or other loss. It must be signed by the Camper and by his/her parent(s) or guardian (referred to below as "Parent"). Camper signs to acknowledge certain understandings and Parent agrees to all provisions, for himself or herself and on behalf of the Camper. This Agreement will continue in full force and effect for subsequent years and Camp terms for which Camper registers, until and unless modified by written agreement.

In consideration of the opportunity to participate in the Camp Genesis experience, Camper acknowledges, and Parent acknowledges and agrees, as follows:

Activities and Risks

Camper and Parent understand that Camp Genesis offers a variety of activities, including vigorous sports and games, water activities, gym sports, field sports, target sports, exercise, fitness, and other activities, including crafts and creative projects. A list of the activities offered has been made available to us, and Camp activities are described, including photos, in the Camp Genesis Brochure, which we have received and reviewed, either online or in print. We understand that all campers are expected to participate in all activities unless the Camp is advised in writing by a Parent that a medical condition prevents participation.

Risks of Camp activities are inherent in the Camp Genesis experience; that is, they cannot be eliminated without significantly altering the nature of the activities and reducing their value and appeal. These risks include those associated with motor vehicle travel, including by van and bus; exposure to the elements of nature, including heat, cold, rain, wind, lightning and fire; falls and abrupt and forceful contact with man-made and natural structures; close personal contact and physical trauma associated with sports and other recreation; falls, bites and other risks associated with errors of judgment, failure to follow instructions, and careless conduct of other campers, staff and other persons with whom the Camp may contract for certain services; and other risks ordinarily associated with camp activities and vigorous recreation in a rugged outdoor environment. Campers may suffer cuts, fractures and sprains, insect bites, plant and other allergies, food and water related ailments, trauma from contact with other persons and objects, heat and cold from exposure to the natural elements, emotional upset and, in extraordinary cases, death, including by drowning. Other risks may be encountered, of course.

We understand that the areas of the camp to which campers have access include a dam and river frontage, rocky, uneven, and rugged wooded terrain, potentially harmful plants, and other creatures which sting or bite, all common to the Kogelberg and Hottentots Holland Biospheres. Camp activities may include travel off the premises to nearby towns and recreation opportunities in vehicles that may be furnished and/or driven by persons with whom the Camp has contracted for that purpose. The Camp accepts no responsibility for the performance of these drivers or their equipment.

Acknowledgment and Assumption of Risks

Camper and Parent understand the activities and risks of the Camp experience, including those described above. Camper and Parent (Parent, for himself or herself and on behalf of Camper), acknowledge and assume all risks of Camper's enrollment and participation in the activities of Camp Genesis, whether described above, and inherent or not.

Release and Indemnity

Parent, for himself or herself, and, to the maximum extent allowed by law, on behalf of the Camper, agrees:

a) to release, and not to sue, Camp Genesis, its owners, directors, staff (including volunteers and visiting instructors and clinicians) and independent contractors (each hereinafter a "Released Party") with respect to all liability and claims, for property loss, personal injury, death or otherwise, arising in whole or part from Camper's enrollment or participation in Camp activities or presence on Camp premises.

b) to hold harmless and indemnify (meaning to protect and pay claims and damages, including costs and attorneys' fees) the Released Parties and each of them from and against all claims, by whomever they may be brought (including family members, fellow-campers and others) arising in whole or part from a loss incurred by Camper or caused by Camper related to his or her enrollment or participation in Camp activities or presence on Camp premises.

c) These agreements of release and indemnity include, but not exclusively, claims based in whole or part on a Released Party's alleged or actual negligence (but not gross negligence or intentionally wrong conduct).

Other

a) Camp rules and expectations set out in the Camper/Parent Handbook must be strictly observed and Camper may be dismissed from Camp, and sent home, in the event of violations of these or other requirements of the Camp administration.

b) If Parent cannot be reached, or circumstances do not permit efforts to locate Parent, in a situation which the Camp considers a medical emergency, Camp directors are hereby granted permission to secure medical treatment for Camper, which may include (but is not limited to) hospitalization, surgery, ordering of injections, anesthesia and other medical care, including exchanging medical information with a third-party care giver.

c) If a dispute arises between Camper or Parent and the Camp which cannot be resolved by agreement, Parent, for himself or herself and on behalf of the Camper, agrees to submit the dispute for mediation to a mediator registered with or otherwise recognized as such by the High Court of South Africa, Western Cape Division, Cape Town, where such mediation shall be conducted.

d) Parent hereby give permission to the Camp to use photographs, videos, or other images of Camper for such purposes as the Camp deems appropriate, including promotion and marketing of the Camp.

e) The laws of the Republic of South Africa shall govern this agreement and all other disputes between Camper, Parent and the Camp or any other Released Party. Any suit that might be filed against the Camp or any Released Party must be filed only in the High Court of South Africa, Western Cape Division, Cape Town.
